Master of Science in Engineering "Diplôme d'Ingénieur"

On the ranking you have been admitted on IMT Atlantique, the administrative registration is done online on the Pre-Pass application (application for which you have received a login and a password).

The following documents must be provide on the first day when you arrived:

- the personal certificate of payment of the Student Life and Campus Contribution (CVEC). You'll find more information on this contribution at this address.
- a medical certificate,
- for non-European international students, an original birth certificate and its translation into French by a sworn translator.

Your tuition fees

For students from outside the European Union:
Tuition fees for new engineering students are 4150 euros for the 2021-2022 school year (unless specifically agreed or agreed with the country of origin).

Note: students from outside the European Union who hold a temporary residence permit and who have been dependent on a tax household located in France for at least two years pay the amount of the fees provided for French and European Union nationals: € 2650

For French students and European Union nationals:
Tuition fees for new engineering students are 2650 euros for the 2021-2022 school year.

The beneficiaries of a higher education scholarship granted by the State and the wards of the Nation are automatically exempt from the payment of tuition fees.

A few information about your budget here