Global village

Every year, international students celebrate cultural and food differences from their respective countries. Everyone can enjoy excellent meals prepared by the students themselves and available on each country's stand. This event is organized by the students' Association with the support of both the International Office and the Language Department. Later in the evening, events continue with a very international party in the Student Union.

Source URL: https://www.imt-atlantique.fr/international/global-village