Living in Rennes

Rennes is a cosmopolitan city with a great quality of life for people of all generations. It offers a rich and varied cultural life in a pleasant and peaceful setting.

The town benefits from its strong Breton identity, its green surroundings and its proximity to the sea. Rennes' location is very central, at less than an hour from Saint-Malo on the north coast of Brittany, but also just an hour and a half from Paris by TGV.

Moving to Rennes means being able to enjoy both urban activities and the outdoors, and it's a great place to live!
