IMT Atlantique rises 6 places in THE YUR 2022 ranking of the world's best young universities

Thanks to its performance in teaching, research, international outreach and knowledge transfer to industry, IMT Atlantique is ranked 44th among the best young institutions in the world in the Times Higher Education 2022.

IMT Atlantique has climbed a further 6 places compared to 2021.

The Young Universities ranking lists the world's best universities aged 50 years or younger. "In less than 5 years, IMT Atlantique has risen rapidly on the French and international university scene," emphasizes Paul Friedel, its director.
